Cote A Cote Estate, Paso Robles

(40% each of Syrah and Grenache with 20% Mourvèdre)
Very sexy aromas of black raspberry, blueberry, apricot pit and licorice and violet. Wonderfully precise and vibrant, with terrific cut to its creamy flavors of dark berry compote and candied violet. Round and sweet on the back end, finishing with excellent clarity, length and a lingering note of floral pastilles. Asseo called this wine "a bit of a prostitute, but a very nice one."
