

TECHNICAL NOTES 2013 WHITES - 2012 REDS

At the end of the 2012 harvest, I already had a feeling that the 2012 vintage was going to be very similar to the 2004 vintage, which was a beautiful vintage in my opinion. I hope that after tasting the final blends, you will agree as well. Both of these vintages were early harvests, sunny, very "California style", which means ripe, very dense, big, but yet very fruit forward with an exceptional silky texture. This will be a vintage with a very long aging potential. I am personally very proud of the 2012 Vintage and I hope you enjoy it as much as I do!"
