

TECHNICAL NOTES 2014 WHITES - 2013 REDS

“About the characteristics of the vintage I will say that 2013 (like 2012) was a very early vintage, which means ripe style but perhaps with more firm tannins. I think, the trap in 2013 was to make big, heavy wine, so I tried during the vinification (while still keeping the style of the vintage) to work more on the elegance, the balance instead of the power. I wanted to make sure this wine was “still pleasurable and drinkable” more than bodybuilding even though you will see it is a big baby! Enjoy my friends!” - Stephan Asseo
