

TECHNICAL NOTES 2018 WHITES - 2017 REDS

“In the 2017s are the perfect proof that big wine in terms of concentration doesn't necessarily mean the best wine. They are a touch less dense (but still big) than the 2016s with a lot of balance and elegance. In other words, I would describe my 2017 as “classic”. There is a lot of fruit, a lot of pleasure and while the wines are firm, they are also quite silky. The 2017s are super expressive and very distinct, and while they are already approachable I can only imagine what a few more years in bottle will do.”
